Trevor Tummond of Mandarin, a freshman at Georgia Southern University, participated in the Wilderness Introduction and Leadership Development program last month.

Ten incoming freshmen explored the North Georgia mountains during the program, which aims to help students transition to college life by introducing them to basic wilderness skills needed for self-sufficiency.

Erica Mitchell of the Westside, a 2006 graduate of Paxon School for Advanced Studies, is the recipient of a four-year, full-tuition college scholarship from the Nike/Jaguars Community Scholars program.

She was nominated for the award by Empowerment Resources, a nonprofit that offers the Journey Into Womanhood program promoting leadership development in girls ages 12-17, from which she graduated in April.

Mitchell plans to major in nursing at the University of North Florida.

Timothy Miller, 17, was recognized during a ceremony Saturday for attaining the highest rank conferred by the Boy Scouts of America, that of Eagle Scout.

Miller is a member of the Shawnee District's Troop 382, which is sponsored by St. Paul United Methodist Church.

He has held leadership positions as an assistant patrol leader, patrol leader and Scout guide to younger Boy Scouts; and served as his troop's representative in Scouting's honor society, the Order of the Arrow, from July 2004 to October 2005.

He also served as the chapter secretary.

For his Eagle project, he worked with the St. Johns River Water Management District Watershed Action Volunteers. He enlisted the help of 20 volunteers and organized a neighborhood cleanup.

Miller and his team helped educate homeowners about their connection to the St. Johns River by cleaning and marking more than 80 storm drains and distributing about 500 door hangers to inform the community of the project.

Miller, a junior at Paxon School for Advanced Studies, is the son of Lori and Ray Miller of the Southside.

Three cheers

The 11th and 12th Districts Masonic Association recently donated $5,000 to the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation to help fund research on Type 1 diabetes.
